Dickie McCamey Continues to Expand Its Headquarters

Pittsburgh's sixth largest law firm, Dickie McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. (DMC), is pleased to announce that Timothy J. Chiappetta has joined the firm as an associate. Attorney Chiappetta will focus his practice in the areas of toxic tort and insurance law, with a particular emphasis in asbestos litigation.

Mr. Chiappetta, licensed in Pennsylvania and Ohio, was liaison counsel for asbestos cases filed in counties throughout both states prior to joining Dickie McCamey. He also brings with him experience in product liability and premises liability defense.

Dickie McCamey Managing Director, Jeffrey T. Wiley, says, "While we're increasing our footprint with the recent expansion into Cleveland, our growth strategy includes increasing the talent in all of our locations."

A native of Pittsburgh, Mr. Chiappetta earned his J.D. from Duquesne University School of Law after graduating with honors from Denison University with a B.A. in Political Science.
