Dickie McCamey Welcomes Medicare Compliance Attorney

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C., a national, full-service law firm, is pleased to welcome Nathan J. Gruz as an associate to its Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, office. He joins the Medicare Compliance Group bringing with him experience in Medicare Secondary Payer issues.

Before joining Dickie McCamey, Mr. Gruz served as a Medicare Set-Aside ("MSA") analyst. His experience extends to analyzing medical records and workers' compensation litigation documents to determine Medicare Set-Aside allocations, as well as preparing the MSA allocations.

"As Medicare issues become increasingly more complex for our clients, the need to expand our talent and service has grown," says Medicare Compliance Group Chair Benjamin Basista. "With the addition of Nathan, our team has grown to include six attorneys in only three years."

Mr. Gruz received his Juris Doctor, cum laude, from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. He is licensed to practice in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia.
