Zirillo Co-Chair of Appalachia General Counsel Forum

Jesse J. Zirillo, a shareholder of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C., is co-chair of the Institute for Energy Law's ("IEL") Annual Appalachia General Counsel Forum. The event is in its fourth year and is presented by the IEL's Young Energy Professionals Practice Committee. The May 25 event will include a general counsel panel discussion, after which each general counsel will join a smaller group of young attorneys for dinner and a more intimate conversation.

Mr. Zirillo is a member of Dickie McCamey's Real Estate and Energy Groups. He has been a member of the IEL for five years and assumes his co-chair position after having been involved in the development of the past three forums. "Success of past years' programs in providing young attorneys access to the industry's general counsel in a congenial setting has made this program one of the most anticipated each year," says Zirillo.

The IEL is a membership organization with many of the leading energy companies and attorneys among its international membership. The IEL's purpose is to provide superior educational and professional opportunities for lawyers and other professionals in the energy industry through educational courses, conferences, scholarly publications, and membership activities.

Mr. Zirillo has substantial experience handling a wide range of transactional matters for clients in the energy, natural resources, and real estate industries. He has been listed in the Pittsburgh Business Times "Who's Who in Energy" and has been selected to the Pennsylvania Super Lawyers? – Rising Stars list for the past two years.
